The Charter School

Alliance Charter Academy (ACA) is a kindergarten through 12th-grade public charter school where every student receives a personalized learning experience. Located in Oregon City, Oregon, and serving approximately 400 students, the school employs a staff of ten classified staff, 46 combined charter registered and licensed teaching staff, one confidential employee, and 4 administrators. The School has a general operating budget of about $3 million.

Our school community is comprised of families from homeschooling and traditional schooling backgrounds. Partnerships among teachers, staff, students, and parents ensure every student has the learning opportunities they need. Students at ACA combine school, community, and home learning to create a custom schedule that allows their academic and creative strengths to flourish.

ACA is also a nationally-accredited charter school, so students are taught to the state content standards that will allow them to succeed beyond school walls. ACA blends the values of the homeschool community with the strengths of an accredited, public K-12 charter school.
